"The sea, once it casts its spell, holds one in its net forever!"

Commodore Rome Ventura

As many of you know, we had a lively membership meeting in January to discuss the lease components required for us to use the area east of our clubhouse for events and weddings.

The discussion had 87 participants, including many of whom participated via Zoom. The Zoom room was professionally facilitated by Members Karen Garman and Mo Orey, who did an excellent job making sure those on Zoom could also speak to the whole room. Thank you both for all your efforts!

The tenor of the meeting was very respectful, contemplative, and helpful. I truly appreciate all of you adding your minds to help us make a good decision.

The litmus test of everything the Bridge and Board of Directors decides is always, "Is this good for the Club"? As such, the business points of any lease are a simple economic decision. The challenge is how we interface with our Landlord's potential development of his adjacent lands.

At the January Board meeting, we unanimously voted to accept the assistance of Member Marty Bohl, a California real estate attorney, to craft a Letter of Intent on our behalf. He will confer with our JAG, Jeff Laveson, who has vast institutional knowledge of our current and past documents.

I am grateful to both of them for their time, talents, and diligence in not giving up on these challenging circumstances.

Please watch for email updates as we move along this process.

I hope you've recovered from all the festive partying because much more is coming for you! In one week, the C-gulls will restart their monthly luncheons on the 7th, Super Bowl on Sunday, Feb 11th, and our Valentine's Day dinner on Wednesday the 14th.

Super Bowl sign-up sheets are at the bar. Please be sure to reserve your spot! For the lovers, our Wednesday Valentine's Day dinner is a reservation-only event. Please reserve either on the website or by calling the club. We will not have our walk-in Wednesday menu available.

Seasoned sailors understand the importance of staying informed about weather conditions. February can bring unpredictable weather patterns, so if you have any questions about wind speeds, tides, and any potential weather-related challenges, please come to our regular sail fleet meetings on the first Friday of the month at 6pm in the Lipton Cup room.

February's employee of the month is Tania James! Tania started here in November and has ingratiated herself with members who love her calm presence and effervescent personality. Tania is a pleasure to work with and has come to grips with a very challenging position with grace, patience, and skill. I've heard nothing but wonderful feedback about her. Congratulations Tania!

General Manager Dan Parker

Brrrr...well, it seems like winter in CA has finally arrived! We hope you are all staying warm and enjoying any time you can spend on the water. In the spirit of cold weather, the House Sub-Committee recently met with Chef Illiana to make some menu updates. We look forward to seeing new choices (including what some would classify as "comfort food") on the winter menu soon.

We also appreciated so many people participating in the recent discussion led by our Commodore Rome regarding future lease options. Your input was heard by the Board of Directors as we represent the club fiscally, and we appreciate your ongoing support. Thank you for your attendance for those who could join us on NYE. I was told this was the largest crowd that staff can remember (~145 people), and we were so happy that everything seemed to go off easily. I have heard much positive feedback from those in attendance. The House Committee did a fantastic job decorating the room, and thank you to Mike Palumbo and Side Traxx for an outstanding performance, as well as helping me clean up the confetti on the patio on January 1st to prevent it from going into the bay. I only wish we had a before and after photo to share. People really enjoyed those confetti poppers, and Pedro and his team had their work cut out for them. We hope you all enjoyed your personal photos, and for anyone who left theirs behind, please see the front desk to get your copies.

We look forward to having people celebrate Valentine's Day on Wednesday, February 14th, for the special menu. Geoff Corey 5 will be performing, and we welcome tables of all sizes (if you prefer to share a romantic table for two or a larger group of eight). Please make your reservations by Wednesday, February 7th, so we can accommodate the table sizes as soon as possible.

And while my personal favorite team, the Dallas Cowboys, won't be playing in the Super Bowl, we know the event will still be a fantastic day. You can choose your table/seat locations by putting your name on the sign-up sheet in the bar area. The charge is for the buffet. If you are not eating, you won't need to pay, but you'll still need to put your name on the chart for your seat! Many fun times are coming in the next few months, so stay tuned to your Navigator and E-blasts.

I look forward to seeing you at the club!

Yacht Club

In our ongoing efforts to expand our CCYC family, we are asking all of our members to reach out to friends and new neighbors who may be unaware of the exciting opportunities we offer here at our yacht club. The number one question I've heard over the years is, "Do I have to own a boat?" We all know the answer to that is, "No boat? No problem!" Please invite prospective members to explore our website and check out the current and past Navigator articles under the "Our Club" link. These articles provide a comprehensive look at the myriad activities that make CCYC great.

One example was our recent movie night, put together by the Gentlemen's Book Club, featuring the maritime classic "Captain Ron." We drew around 50 folks who enjoyed pizza, good company, and a great film. It's just a glimpse of the camaraderie and fun we share.

Please remember that we offer Military Memberships for active-duty armed forces personnel. These amazing people often move around a lot, and CCYC can be an excellent resource for fun and community during their time here in Coronado. Speaking of Military Members, I'd like to warmly welcome Philip and Maria Youngberg and their 15-month-old boy, James. Philip is a graduate of the US Naval Academy and is currently stationed here in Coronado. Say hello to the Youngbergs when you see them at the club.

Also, if you have not done so already, please activate your CCYC.org Member Login credentials. It will allow you to make reservations, review your monthly statements, and manage your payments. If you have trouble setting up your account, call me, and I'll be happy to help. Please call or email me with any membership questions or ideas.

Be well,

We are looking for sailors to increase our fleet. If you have never sailed or raced before, we will help you get started. Let me know if you have a sailboat and need some help to start racing. I must warn you that once the racing bug bites, it is hard to clear it. We always seem to need crew. Come join us for a fun day on the Bay.

On Saturday, January 6th, we had a wonderful day of racing. The wind was a little light for some of us. I prefer 10-15 knots (the curse of a big boat). The Harbor 20s placed two boats in the top four.

We have three races coming up.

Saturday, January 27th: CCYC Winter Solstice Race

Saturday, February 3rd: Coronado Yacht Club (CYC) has their SBC Winter Regatta

Saturday, February 10th: CCYC Winter Classic Race 3 of 4

The Winter Solstice Race is a fun race started as the shortest race for the shortest day of the year. But who can resist a little more time on the water?

The CYC South Bay Combined (SBC) Winter Regatta is the first qualifying race for the SBC Championship. There are 3 short races in one day (Windward/Leeward). To qualify for the SBC Championship, a boat must complete 1 day (3 races) of racing in one of the three following races:

Saturday, February 3rd: CYC SBC Winter Regatta

Saturday, July 20th: Navy Yacht Club (NYCSD) Regatta

Sunday, September 22nd: CCYC SBC Dolan Regatta

Saturday, October 5th: SBC Championship Regatta

The SBC Championship will be on Saturday, October 5th, put on by the Coronado Yacht Club (current cup holder). Let's see if we can win the cup back this year.

The SpyglassC-Gulls Captain Anna Paul*“Who We Are”

I am grateful for Diane Jones, Jane Reavie, and Carolyn Carswell, along with our Vice-Commodore, Kevin Brenden, and his team, who helped take down the Christmas decorations. Since I had the flu and was not there, I was told the Christmas decorations came down quickly. Everything is well organized in their correct bins and stored in the attic.

Thank you goes to Lisa Brenden and Carolyn Carswell, Historians. They are busy taking pictures of all things C-Gulls. They will be displayed in the monthly Navigator, and if you haven't noticed, we are on the BIG SCREEN located as you enter the Lobby. If you see your picture on the Screen, please say thank you to Lisa or Carolyn.

C-Gulls is a ladies' social group where we encourage your participation in all events. We support women in the pursuit of friendship, fun, and education. Be a participant and create memories and friendships with like-minded ladies. Another part of C-Gulls is Regalia. Regalia offers ladies and men apparel and accessories for sale in nautical and Coronado Cays Yacht Club. Regalia is all organized by C-Gulls volunteers. With the earnings from Regalia sales, we can raise money to improve our Yacht Club. When you look around the Club... you will see improvements made by the C-Gulls.

To be a member, you must already be a member of the CCYC. If you are interested in joining, ask at the front desk or ask one of the Regalia team for an application. The fee is only $50.00 per year.

As we look ahead, Diana Jones and Jennifer Luther, Cruise Directors, are excited about the upcoming programs for C-Gulls luncheons. I encourage you to come to the luncheons and make new friends.

1. February 7th – “Duetto in Concert” Love Duets from Broadway to Opera with famous opera singers Victoria Robertson and Bernardo Bermudez
2. March 6th – Coronado Police Department. Will show self-defense. Self-protection devices to carry for protection and what happens when an intruder enters your home.
3. April 3rd – Introducing our new Commodore; Rome Ventura. Hosted by Trish Graisy

On behalf of the C-Gulls Board and the Standing Committee Chairs, I extend warm wishes for a happy and healthy New Year. May it bring smooth sailing and moments of joy with family and friends. May we navigate the waters of the coming year with kindness and care.

Thank you for being an integral part of our C-Gulls family.

I will leave you with this quote from Beth Moore. “Let your light shine today, and let your personality blossom, too. You don't have to be a people-pleaser, just a people-lover.”

FEBRUARY 2024 BOOK CLUB SELECTION

Rowing to Latitude - Jill Freestone

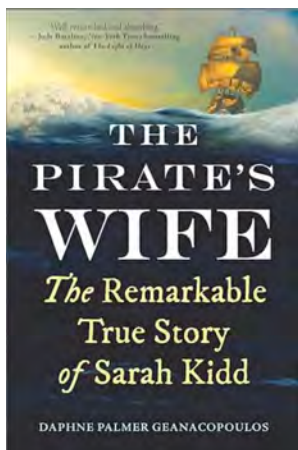

In this look at rowing some of the world's most isolated and pristine coasts, Freestone focuses as much on her personal experience and her relationship with her husband, Doug Fesler, as she does on their actual journeys. The two avalanche experts, researchers and rescue trainers canoe the Arctic and sub-Arctic coastlines of Alaska, Canada, Greenland, Norway and Sweden for three months out of each year.

River Horse: A Voyage Across America - William Least Heat-Moon

The acclaimed author of Blue Highways and PrairieEarth chronicles his journey across America's waterways in his dory Nikawa (River Horse), encountering strange people, hostile cities, and hair-raising dangers.

APRIL 2024 BOOK CLUB SELECTION

The Pirate's Wife: The Remarkable True Story of Sarah Kidd-Daphne Palmer Geanacopoulos

The Marshaling in newly discovered primary-source documents from archives in London, New York and Boston, historian and journalist Daphne Palmer Geanacopoulos reconstructs the extraordinary life of Sarah Kidd, uncovering a rare example of the kind of life that pirate wives lived during the Golden Age of Piracy. A compelling tale of love, treasure, motherhood and survival, this landmark work of narrative nonfiction weaves together the personal and the epic in a sweeping historical story of romance and adventure.

As Communication Director, I want to ensure you have timely and relevant information about the club. A lot of time and effort goes into the Navigator each month, and, along with weekly emails, it is our primary form of keeping all of you in the know on activities and events. If we are hitting the mark, let me know, or if you have suggestions, I would love to hear those as well. I am happy to get your emails, texts, or phone calls.

Last month, our question was, where do I send pictures? As a reminder, my email commsdirector@ccyc.org is the best place to send them so we can include them, as we have room in the Navigator and on the TV as you walk into the club! Thanks to those of you who took the time to send some great pictures.

Now, new month, new question!

Inquiring Minds Dock Here Where Answers Await Members

“If I have an idea(s) for an event, who do I send that to?”

That is a great question, as we can never have enough fun ideas and events. If you run into any board member (we all have large gold name tags) please share your idea so you don't forget, or send them to my email address, commsdirector@ccyc.org, and I will get them to the right Board Member.

“If I call the club regarding a reservation or to see if there is availability for dinner after the front desk is closed, how do I reach someone?”

Please call the main number 619-429-0133 and Press 1 for Reservations. Those calls are sent to a cell phone, which Vilma handles until the host comes in, and then the host will answer or call you back. Please make sure you leave your phone number. Even easier, head to ccyc.org, and use Open Table, our online reservation system..

I look forward to hearing from you.

Poker News

In addition to the regular hold 'em' games each Monday, the CCYC poker bluffers have tournaments on the 3rd Monday of each month. Points for participating and placing in the top ten each month are awarded, with the ten players with the most points seated at the final table in December to determine the club champion.

The CCYC Poker Bluffers kicked off their 17th tournament season on January 15th with 15 players competing for points and prizes. Soon after the dinner break, we were down to two players heads up, Jonathan (Dr. Evil) Gold and Don (THE Don) Smith. After about a half hour of back and forth, Jonathan survived the final all in to capture the first tournament of the year.

The next tournament is Monday, February 19. Regular games at 6 pm every Monday. New players are always welcome. For poker fun, please contact Ken Mischel mischelco@msn.com (619)988-1733 or Buzz Hattersley at buzzhat@san.rr.com.

Valentine's Day & Opera Week with Regalia

Although our Regalia team usually sells on Wednesdays, we will be closed on Valentine's Day, February 14. But you can shop for your Valentine on Friday, February 9, with our Volunteer Sales Team members Mary Lawler and Gayle Frank.

For husbands and the other men in your life, there are CCYC logo items, including ball caps, jackets, and long-sleeved polo shirts in navy and black, and short-sleeved polos in Valentine red, white, or navy. We also have men's (or unisex) jackets. There's a limited supply of traditional red and white CCYC sail jackets, so shop soon. We also have new lighter-weight sail jackets in black and white for both men and women.

For wives and sweethearts, we have dazzling Mary Frances handbags for a special Valentine's dinner out and soft faux fur jackets to keep you warm. Silken black pants and a colorful patterned blouse by La Mer Lux complete your stylish ensemble.

Valentine's month is the beginning of Opera season in San Diego. Our C-Gulls Operagoers include Anna Paul, Carole Hoover-Head (and RG), Marianna Polles, and Betty Schulman.

On February 4, the San Diego Opera presents Mozart's Don Giovanni, a tale of seduction and betrayal. Although we do not encourage seduction and betrayal at CCYC, we hope our operagoers enjoy the show.

C-Gulls will also celebrate Opera. On Wednesday, February 7, we will have an Opera-themed C-Gulls Luncheon hosted by Anna Paul. The luncheon theme is black, white, and red—the colors of Phantom of the Opera. We will hear songs from Phantom and other operatic works. Please dress in opera attire—black, red, and white. Masks are optional.

Have a fabulous February, the month of love and Opera.
